Keynote Speaker:

Marie Norfleet

Senior Technical Instructor -
Infotec

There are an estimated 350,000 open cybersecurity positions in the U.S. and globally the shortfall is predicted to reach 3.5 million by 2021. As a Senior Technical Trainer at Infotec Dale Carnegie, Marie Norfleet leads individuals, schools, businesses, and government commands in preparing their workforce to obtain the top security certifications through instruction, developing knowledge tools, as well as, growing faculty through train-the-trainer programs. Marie has co-authored a Cyber Security Manual for the HealthCare Industry, holds A+, Network+, Security+ Linux+, Project+, Server+, Advanced Security Practitioner, Certified Ethical Hacker, ITIL, Six Sigma and several other certifications personally recognizing the value certification holds in the evolving field of Cyber Security. She has a passion for the industry and for sharing her wealth of knowledge to help others as we unitedly bridge the skills gap to properly protect our society from vulnerability that can cause vast devastation.
